NOTES FOR THE AUDITION DAY

- A parent or guardian is required to remain at the Theatre throughout the whole of the audition process.
- Your child needs to wear suitable clothing and comfortable footwear.
- Please make sure your child brings plenty to drink. The Theatre Café will be open serving light refreshments.
- The choreographer will teach them a routine, your child does not need to prepare one.
- There is no charge for the audition and no fee payable if your child is cast.
- A decision will be made on the day.
- Photographs will be taken during the audition. These may be used for press/publicity purposes. Speak to an organiser on the day of audition if this is a problem.

NOTES FOR SUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS

- Your child needs to attend every rehearsal and performances (rehearsal schedule TBC)
- You will need to complete all the relevant paperwork for the Licence application when it is issued.
- One parent will need to apply for a chaperone licence and you will need to commit to chaperoning duties during rehearsals and for scheduled performances of the pantomime.
- Time off school will be required for some rehearsals and performances.
- You will need to supply your child's shoes, tights and skin-toned body stocking for performances.
